Check-In Notice for Non-local and Exchange Residential Students of New Asia College, 2022/2023

A. Early Check-in Arrangement

The room allocations of residential students have been released by the College. To facilitate the implementation of public health safety measures within the student hostels, the College has designated specific hostel floor(s) for non-local/ exchange residents returning to campus to carry out their self-monitoring and/or medical surveillance according to the government’s latest announcement at a daily hostel fee of HK$120 (before 4 Sep 2022).

The hostels will install e-card reading system for recording resident’s entry and exit records. Residents will need to use their CU Link Card to tap on the card reading devices for entering and leaving the hostels as soon as possible.

Note: Students should check in to assigned hostels by 7 Sep 2022. If they do not report their late check-in on or before 7 Sep 2022 at nahostel@cuhk.edu.hk, their hostel places will be forfeited.

B. Check-in Procedures

1. Upon admission to the assigned hostels, residents are required to:
   a. Check their body temperature at hall counter
   b. Complete and sign the “Undertakings”
   c. Present their CU Link cards (or Passport) for verification.
   d. Provide one passport-sized photo and fill in the Resident Registration Form and Health Declaration Form (provided by staff of hall counter)
2. Students who have fully vaccinated 14 days before the check-in day MUST bring along their original vaccine records as proof for check-in.
3. After completion of the check-in procedure, please collect the room key from the hall counter.

C. Medical surveillance and/or Self-monitoring Arrangements

Inbound residents are required to undergo rapid antigen tests (RATs) daily until Day 10 of their arrival at Hong Kong and take a photo of the results daily and keep in on their mobile device for inspections when requested by the Government.
Please refer to the tables below for the arrangement of different type of inbound residents.
