Keynote Speech : Are we really back to normal? - How do students cope with the pressure in study as well as job hunting in the era of "going back to normal"?

Time : 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Speaker: Miss Zanonía CHIÚ - Registered Clinical Psychologist

In 2021, we are still living under the threat of virus variants. Fortunately, we can resume normal teaching and see each other faces after more than a year of online classes. However, this is again a change for us, who have got used to the "new normal" life. The academic requirements and social activities increased. These changes in our daily routines, studies, and time management become new challenges.

At the same time, our final year students and graduates may also face difficulties in job hunting.

We are glad to have alumni Miss Chiu, a registered clinical psychologist, to share with us some positive ways to relieve stress and help us adjust our mentality and deal with stress positively.

Introduction of Speaker:

Miss Zanonía CHIÚ graduated in CUHK, majored in Nursery. She then obtained the General Counselling Diploma and Postgraduate Diploma in Psychology, CUHK. She is a Registered Clinical Psychologist and Associate Fellow of The Hong Kong Psychological Society. She is also the member of the Division of Clinical Psychology, The Hong Kong Psychological Society, moreover, she had been the Honorary Secretary, Hong Kong Clinical Psychologists Association in 2012-2017. She is the director of the “Wellness Psychological Consultancy Services”, and as a guest Registered Clinical Psychologist in many private hospitals and clinics in Hong Kong. She is also a guest lecturer in many tertiary institutions in Hong Kong.

Zanonía has been invited as the guest speaker in events and interviews from large-scale enterprises, media and tertiary institution. She is also a columnist of newspapers which cover information of mental health. Mr. Chiu was the speaker of our keynote speech of Career Talks Day last year.

Remark: There will be a Q&A session after the speech. Participants are welcome to submit questions in the enrolment form in advance.
