

New Asia College
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Guidelines for the Use of Fund from University-College
Joint Scheme for Staff-Students Interaction

Introduction

This Joint Scheme was approved and established by the University and the Colleges in 2006. The total amount for each College is $200,000 ($100,000 from the University and $100,000 from the College). The purpose of this Fund is to facilitate more contact and interaction between staff and students outside the classroom. The Fund is to support a staff's expenses when he or she takes a group of students out for lunch or dinner for social interaction and advice.

Reimbursement Guidelines

1. All full-time staff affiliated with the College are eligible.
2. Meals may be taken on or off campus, and may include lunch and/or dinner.
3. The maximum amount of reimbursement for each person present at the meal is $100.
4. The maximum amount of reimbursement for each staff per academic year is as follows:

	Role	Amount of reimbursement ($ per staff per academic year)*
1.	Resident Tutors	2,000
2.	College-affiliated teaching staff	2,000
3.	Department/Programme Co-ordinators	2,500
4.	Staff participated in the "Staff-Students Get Together Luncheon"	2,500
5.	Senior College Development Officer/ College Development Officer/ Assistant College Development Officer	2,500
6.	College General Education course teachers/ Physical Education teachers	3,000
7.	Head/Associate Head/Dean of Students/ Associate Dean of Students/ Dean of General Education/ Associate Dean of Students/College Secretary/ Wardens	4,000

If a staff is holding more than one relevant position at the College, the greater amount of reimbursement shall apply and prevail.*

5. $100,000 will be allocated for use in the First Semester, and $100,000 for use in the Second Semester.
6. Spouses and children of staff members, as well as non-New Asia students may be invited to the meals, but the number of New Asia students must make up at least half of the student membership present in a meal.
7. Official receipts and list of names of students, including their College affiliations, must be presented for each reimbursement application.
8. Reimbursement is made on a first-come-first-served basis.
9. Application for reimbursement must be made in a prescribed form available from the College Office or the College homepage (<http://www.na.cuhk.edu.hk/>).

Review of the Guidelines

The above guidelines have been approved by the Standing Committee in September 2025, and are subject to review from time to time by the Standing Committee.

Enquiries: Ms. Winnie Lam, College Office, New Asia College
(Tel.: 3943-7635; Email: wingyanlam@cuhk.edu.hk)

September 2025